At any time, your school counselor can help set realistic academic goals, create a process for sticking to those goals, and ultimately help reach the success you are planning for. Your counselor is your advocate and will do all they can to support their academic growth.

- Course Planning
- College Planning
- Study Habits
- Academic Goal Setting
- Academic Motivation
- Finding Additional Academic Resources

Life can bring a lot of unexpected twists and turns that could get in between you and your goals. Your counselor is here to make sure you can navigate those issues and still achieve. Your counselor has an office full of resources for you to use when life gets hard.

- Social Problems at School
- Concerns about Friends
- Homelessness or Issues at Home
- Motivation

Having a plan is important. It helps us understand why we are working so hard today. Having a career goal and a plan to make that goal a reality adds value to the hard work you are doing.

- Finding a Career
- Identifying Career Interests
- Finding internships and career exploration opportunities
- Identifying the pathway to your career.